

Electronic Security

The Investigators Group can assist you in investigations where covert operations are required.

We specialize in covert electronic security measures, including covert CCTV camera systems, covert GPS tracking systems and electronic counter measures for our corporate clients.

These devices can be employed to uncover theft, detect corporate espionage and to ensure compliance of drivers, sales persons and other employees. Contact us for a free consultation to see if electronic security is Your Investigative Solution.

